CAMP HIGHLIGHTS

- All the campers will get a chance to interact and play with current university soccer players.
- Our large staff allows for smaller groups and creates more opportunity for quality playing experiences.
- Excellent coaches - All coaches are either former or current university or professional players and they have either USSF or NSCAA licensure.
- The camp stresses FUN and development. Players come away with new skills and confidence to play the world's greatest game.
- The camp curriculum is designed for all levels of players.
- Small and large sided games will be played daily.
- Augustana is a safe and beautiful campus, players will be able to get to all of the facilities quickly and without reservation that you might find at a bigger school.
- Goalkeeping sessions conducted by Camp Director Brandon Barkus. A unique opportunity for those players interested in goalkeeping to refine their talents.

CAMP DIRECTORS

BRANDON BARKUS – HEAD COACH

has been the Head Soccer Coach at Augustana since 2006, compiling a record of 139-94-27, five NCAA tournament appearances and one NSIC championship. In 2018, Barkus' club made its fifth NCAA tournament appearance in program history and finished the season with a record of 12-6-3. In 2017 the Vikings went on to break the school single season shutout record with 14 shutouts and made its third consecutive NSIC tournament final, finishing as runner-ups for the second straight season. In 2016 for the second consecutive season he guided the Vikings to the NSIC tournament championship, while going 13-5-3, which is the third best record in program history. 2015 was the best year in program history with the team going 19-3-1, and winning their first ever conference tournament championship and advancing to the regional championship in the NCAA tournament for the first time in program history. Under his tutelage, the Vikings have broken numerous records: NCC wins in a season, school record for wins in a season, and coached numerous student-athletes to All-Conference, All-Region, and All-American honors. Barkus has his BA in Physical Education from Benedictine College in Atchison, KS, and a Master's in Education from Augustana University. Barkus has completed his USSF "A" Coaching License, NSCAA Advanced National Coaching Diploma, USSF National Youth Coaching License, NSCAA Level II Goalkeeping Certificate. He has been a part of Nebraska ODP, USYSA Region 2 Staff Coach. In 1998 he was the Kansas State Girls Coach of the Year, and in 2007 was the South Dakota Girls Coach of the Year. He was a three year starter and All American GK at Benedictine College. Barkus began his coaching career at Baker University in Kansas, and spent time as the Director of Coaching at Olathe Soccer Club in Olathe, KS.

ARIC SPADER – ASSISTANT COACH

Aric Spader was a Soccer Graduate Assistant from 2015-2016 and was elevated to Assistant Coach in 2017. With Spader's assistance in 2018, Augustana made its fifth NCAA tournament in program history, finishing the season 12-6-3. In 2017 the Vikings qualified for the NCAA tournament with a record of 14-4-5 and went on to break the single season shutout record with 14 shutouts and made its third consecutive NSIC tournament final. In 2016, Spader helped the Vikings to a record of 13-5-3 and concluding their season in the NSIC Tournament Title match. In 2015 he helped guide the team to their first ever NSIC Tournament Championship which also clinched the programs third ever NCAA Tournament appearance. That year, the Vikings also won their first ever NCAA Tournament match. Spader played at Washington High School, and club soccer for Dakota Gold. He played briefly at Mount Marty College, where his career was cut short due to injury. He has his BS in Psychology from South Dakota State University, and Master's in Sports Administration and Leadership from Augustana University. He was named the 2017 South Dakota Girls Coach of the Year and holds a USSF "C" License.
